Nine Pistol-Shots That Resulted in a Death at Covington.

N. COOPER KILLED BY JAMES M. SLAUGHTER, The news came Sunday morning of the the news came Sunday morning of the spling of J. M. Cooper, city marshal of covington, Ky., by James A. Slaughter, of the firm of Holshouser & Slaughter, of that The ultimate origin of the tragedy, as could be learned yesterday, is id in a difficulty that occurred between parties last August, when Slaughter around with a double-barrel shot-gun king for Cooper. Cooper was forced by oir blew over, but was not attended with on restoration of good feeling.

MMEDIATE CAUSE OF THE ROW.

On last Saturday afternoon Avery slaughter, a brother of James Slaughter, had a fight with another man on the streets Covington. Cooper attempted to arm at full cock, threatening to shoot on him at full cock, threatening to shoot him if he advanced any further. By a sudden spring Cooper snatched the gun away and knocked Slaughter down with it by a blow on the head. Slaughter, when he came to himself, went off and told his brother what had occurred.
